

LPPS Family Resource Center

Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Test?

Family is Key!

Date: February 25, 2010

Time: 6:00 p.m.-7:00 p.m.

Presenter: Lori Cothorn

Lori Cothorn has taught and worked in the LPPS system for 22 years. You will find her to be a dynamic public speaker! She will answer questions such as :

- What does this test actually test?
- What does it look like?
- Should my child guess?
- What is the best way to study and prepare?
- Is test anxiety real and how can I help?

Due to limited seating, this workshop is for parents only. Please no children.

WORKSHOP LOCATION:

Literacy and Technology Center
9261 Florida Boulevard
Walker, Louisiana 70785

Family Resource Center
Hours of Operation
Tuesday 1:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m.
Wed. & Thurs. 9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m.

A FREE workshop for parents

February 25, 2010

"Test Taking Strategies"

Have you ever wondered what it is like to prepare and take the Louisiana Standardized Tests? Here is your opportunity to get a sampling of what your child experiences as they get ready for LEAP and iLEAP! Learn the value of different strategies parents can use to help their child succeed!

Workshop will focus on grades 2-8

Seating is limited! Call or email today to reserve your spot!

Free test prep materials for the first 50 to register!

Deborah.kropog@lpsb.org Jennifer.rabalais@lpsb.org

225-667-1098